

Reginiano-Black n Grey

Waves of Blues

Send me a boat and I will sail along your river
Show me a light to track
Throw me a glance and I will try my best to win you Give me a little chance

Find me some shelter from everyone around me
Give me the right to stay
Make me a fix, eliminate my troubles
Show me another way

Hand me a rope and with all my strength I'll climb out of the loneliness
Send me some hope and I will shed my thoughts away
Turn off my weariness

Waves of blues in the afternoon, drawing life down Waves of blues in the afternoon, breaking me

I Wish

I feel you in the morning when I'm slowly learning how to shed my heart right from my bed I feel you in the night when I start the fight of thinking about something else than you

But no, I can't forget that when you were beside me, nothing was frightening
You'd break the waves of fear before they crashed
Before they flooded all my dreams
But now my thoughts are drowning
Nothing left for me to crave for in this world

I still recall that evening we found ourselves competing and played the game of not speaking at all
And when you did your face we laughed our tears until they bounded to a pool of love

Sometimes, I wish that you will come here and take me to your special place in the clouds
We'll laugh until the morning will shine and then we'll fall asleep, surrounded by the warmth we know so well

I wish a coat of light would wrap my aching heart cause all my sorrow leaves me naked in the fields of joy
"All wounds will heal with time", they say
Well, I've been waiting for 10 months & 30 days
So when will the time come?

It won't. I won't forget that when you were beside me, nothing was frightening
You'd break the waves of fear before they crashed
Before they flooded all my dreams
But now my thoughts are drowning
Nothing left for me to pray for in this world

Sometimes, I wish that you would come here and take me
to your special place in the clouds
We'll laugh until the morning will shine
and then I'll be relieved for I left the world below forevermore

Something happened

Something happened now I don't even see your face
Our bond got loose with time
Something happened now I don't even share the taste we used to have when we were in love

Something happened now I don't even see the door that can lead us in or out Something happened now the roof is on the floor
The rain is falling straight on my heart
So please come to me

Seems like the world stopped turning
The sun stopped shining bright
Seems like our lust is quietly fading
Our solution is out of sight
So please come to me

Something happened but I still adore your grace
I still adore your pretty smile
Competing with you is still my favorite race
I wanna run with you another mile
So please come to me

Vocal - Dan Rutman, Acoustic Guitar - Eyal Reginiano,
Cello - Micha Haran, Piano - Ofer Pinhas

Waiting for You

Can't believe the news tonight
Your eyes, they shine so bright
After all the storms we've been through
The sun came out of the blue

Unclear image black & grey
Thoughts are everywhere
Holding hands, silent blur
Scent of magic in the air

Out in the clouds the wild birds sing:
Waiting for her, waiting for her, waiting for...

I feel the way you move
I love you without even knowing you
Wondering what's in your head
Wishing you're safe and glad

Out in the clouds the wild birds sing:
Waiting for her, waiting for her, waiting for her!

Anyway you'll go- I'll see you through Any pain you'll know- I'll share it too
Any dream you'll hunt- I'll give my hand
Any love you'll want- I'll understand

Down on the ground a mad man sings:
Waiting for you, waiting for you, waiting for you!
We are here:
Waiting for you, waiting for you, waiting for you!

Coco

There was a child with dreams to fly above the land & sea
He closed his eyes and lifted his hands, waited to be free
He had no doubt he's on the way, just needs some strength to put They looked at him and said- "oh he's so cute!"

At the age of 15 he started talking to the wind
It told him- "walk with me, don't be afraid"
And the people started staring
And the people started swearing
But the strange boy he stayed the same
Everybody called him coco
Everybody called him nuts

Then & on he kept preparing for the day he'll fly
He trained a lot by running with the wind and looking at the sky
With a mouth wide open and a sailing mind
He loved to see the eagles floating with him so aligned
Still everybody called him coco
Everybody called him nuts

Then as a man he climbed to the highest mountain found
Went on the cliff and spread his wings
His heart was beating, his tears were fleeting
So so happy and excited
But he kept hearing them screaming that he'll fall like coco
Smash like nuts

These days he did it and he's flying over land and sea
His heart is filled with white as a coco on a tree
The breeze is strumming the clouds like a guitar string
Now everybody's standing, watching, not saying anything

Follow the Sun

Follow the sun
In your crazy way
Don't let the moon fool your eyes
Don't let the moon fool your eyes
Keep your focus

Follow the sun
In your crazy way
Don't let the crows hunt you down
Don't let the crows hunt you down
Keep your radar on

Follow the sun
In your crazy way
Don't let the wind shed your hope
Don't let the wind shed your hope
Never surrender

Father

(Interview with Dr. Jack Kevorkian, May of 1996)

Someday near the end
I won't forget the effort that you spent
The roads you have shown me
The sacrifice you made Accompanies me on each step I take

Someday near the end
I won't forget you
I'll hold your shaking hand
When health will forsake you Just like you said it would
I will stay true and share your ache

Now rest your head upon my shoulder
And trade your worries with delight
No need of gods to make us bolder
Just breathe our love and feel alright

Someday near the end
I won't forget you
I'll be a faithful friend
If you get fed up with life
Just like you said you would I'll be there to free you out of your pain

Now rest your head upon my shoulder
And trade your worries with delight
No need of gods to make us bolder
Just breathe our love and feel alright

Someday near the end
I won't forget you
For my belief I'll stand

Revenge

Tonight there'll be no sleeping
I'll drown in my thoughts
Can't run away from it
Echoed screams are now my chains and cuffs

Tonight the light won't enter
A swamp of black tears
Oh why? Tell me why?
Filthy looks are now my chains and cuffs
Revenge holds the key to set me free

Today belief was in me
I took the road to the whitish sky
But every time I try to change my life, it drops me
Your savage beatings are now my chains and cuffs
Revenge holds the key to set me free

Free to enter trust nothing will stop me
Clean to enter love inside my tired heart

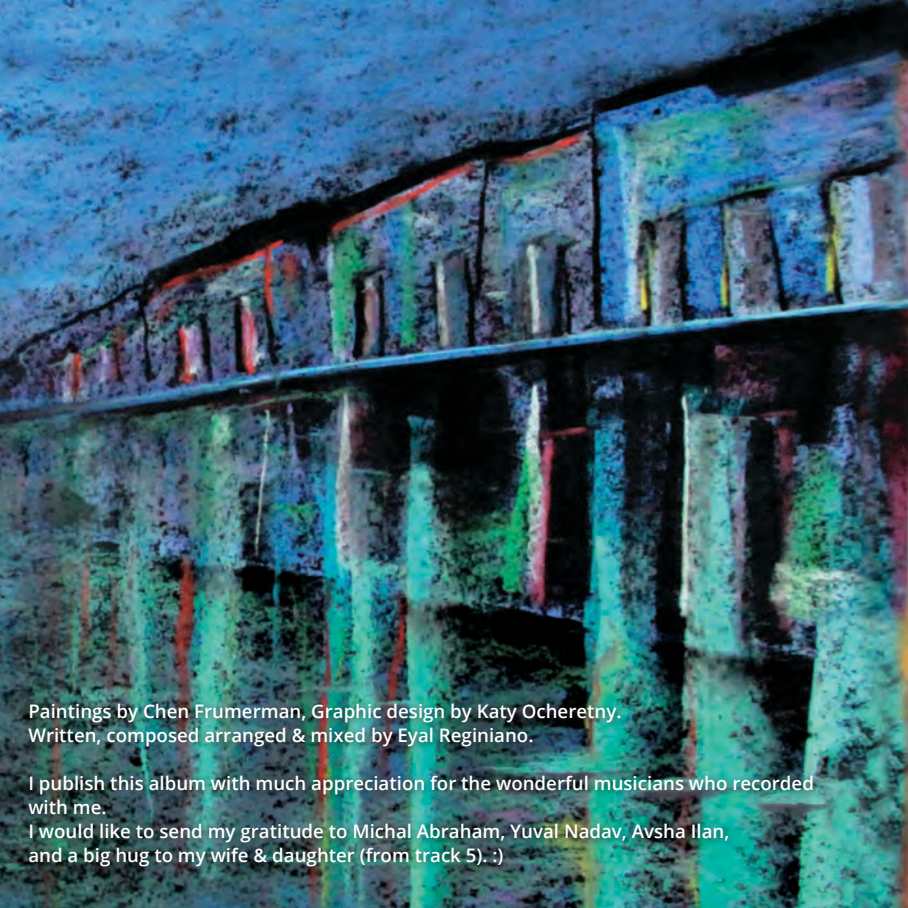

The smell of justice will release my chains and cuffs
Revenge holds the key to set me free
