Waterfall

I can hardly write a song
When I think about what's going on
I stare into those vacant spaces
I can only see their smiling faces

Tell it to the wind
Tell it to the waterfall
Tell it to the rain
Falling on the ocean

Endless territorial wars
On my Middle Eastern day dream shores
Darkness seems to take control
I can hardly see a way at all

Tell it to the wind
Tell it to the waterfall
Tell it to the rain
Falling on the ocean

Travelling against the odds
Could a blessing be an overload
In the distance I still hear those voices
The further I go I hear them even closer

Louder than the wind
Flowing like a waterfall
Sweeter than the rain
Falling on the ocean

Stronger than the wind
Flowing like a waterfall
Sweeter than the rain
Falling on the ocean

Higher than the wind

Elusive Fate

So you have finally found your way
But is it really yours?
Moving on from day to day
What keeps you moving on
Those heavy moods they always change
Up and down up and down
And round and round
Round and round
You are lost and found
You are lost and found
I am coming with you elusive fate
Show me the way
Show me the way
So many years elusive fate
Show me the way
Show me the way
Along long darkened alleyways
You are wondering alone
Still seeking truth that you once said
You once said
You once said
It could be yours, should be yours
Will soon be yours
You are coming close
Closer to the edge
I am coming with you elusive fate
Show me the way
Show me the way
So many years elusive fate
Show me the way
Show me the way
